

BUILD A CAREER IN ONE OF THE UK'S FASTEST GROWING SECTORS.

The UK construction industry employs 3.1 MILLION people

Around 31% of the workforce is over the age of 50 and young people like you are in demand

The average salary across the UK construction industry is £35,160

Some employers require people working on construction sites to hold a CSCS card, which proves you have the right training and qualifications for the job, however, they are not a legal requirement for working in the industry.

CONSTRUCTION

WHICH SKILLS ARE EMPLOYERS LOOKING FOR?

- ✓ PROBLEM SOLVING
- ✓ NUMERACY
- ✓ TIME MANAGEMENT
- ✓ TEAMWORK

A WIDE RANGE OF ROLES.

BRICKLAYER
ARCHITECT
QUANTITY SURVEYOR
TOWN PLANNER
JOINER
ELECTRICIAN
CONSTRUCTION ENGINEER
CIVIL ENGINEER
PROJECT MANAGER

100+ types of apprenticeships (Level 2-7)

MANY PATHWAYS INTO THE SECTOR.

T Level: Building services engineering for construction

T Level: Design, surveying and planning for construction

T Level: Onsite construction

A university degree

Level 1 and 2 qualifications, e.g. City & Guilds

Graduate training schemes